Robert J. Canter, Jr., FICF, LUTCF, and CSA serves as Field Agent for councils 8403, 8600, 10806, 11922, and 12187 in Northern VA. He lives in Herndon, VA, with his wife, Lori.

Bob joined the Knights of Columbus in June 1987, received his 4th degree in April 1992, and became a Field Agent in March 1997. A native of Virginia, he is a third-generation agent in service of the Order. Bob's Grandfather worked for the Knights of Columbus in Pennsylvania for 15 years; his Father worked for the Knights of Columbus in the Washington, DC, area for 35 years; his brother Harry worked for the Knights of Columbus in the Washington area for 26 years; and his youngest brother John is a field agent in Maryland.

Bob holds the professional designations of Fraternal Insurance Counselor Fellow (FICF), Life Underwriter Training Course Fellow (LUTCF), and Certified Senior Advisor (CSA). He is also a Lifetime Member of the Million Dollar Round Table (MDRT), which is the Premier Association of financial professionals worldwide.

Bob's commitment to his members has made him a successful field agent. Bob loves being able to help clients plan for and achieve their dreams of financial security in retirement, as well as supporting and protecting their families in the event of an unexpected life event.

Bob has qualified for the prestigious Supreme Knights Sales Club, which honors the top 75 of 900 field agents all 25 years he has been with the Knights of Columbus.

Bob and his team will be working out of our new Fairfax office.
